Fall Fundraising Update

Thank you to everyone who participated in our Equal Exchange Fair Trade fundraiser and our Joseph-Beth Gift Card fundraiser. Between the two fundraisers, we raised nearly $5,400 for programs at our school! That is a terrific total given the tough economic times our country is currently facing. I hope that you are very pleased with the products you ordered from our fundraisers.

Everyone who ordered from our two fundraisers should have received all of their products by now. The rooibos tea and the chai tea that were backordered with Equal Exchange both came in and were delivered to the children whose orders contained those products. I am sure that you will agree that these teas were worth the wait. The Joseph-Beth gift cards were delivered to the classrooms on December 9th. If you did not receive something that you ordered from either fundraiser, please contact me immediately at ksbrowning@windstream.net.

Thank you again for your participation and your support of our school! I wish you all peace and joy in this holiday season. We will look forward to seeing you again in the New Year! Cheers, Kim Browning

District PTA Reflections Contest Winners

The District PTA Reflections Awards Ceremony was held on Dec. 7 at Dunbar High School. We were pleased to have 8 entries from Stonewall this year. Announced at the ceremony were two First Place winners from Stonewall:

Elora Mukhopadhyay Dance Choreography
Kennedy King Dance Choreography

Both pieces will be entered in the State PTA Reflections Contest this spring. GOOD LUCK!

We also had a Second Place winner in Literature, Elora Mukhopadhyay and a Third Place winner in Photography, Madison Henry. Other students honored at the awards ceremony were Erin Markel in Literature, Quinn Coffey in Photography and Haley Potter in Visual Arts. We are very proud of all of our Stonewall contestants. Thanks to the parents and teachers who supported this event.

Wow! Great Job! Wow!

Start looking forward to Winterfest 2009 fun by enjoying a winter puzzle.

Yes, your PTA is planning another wonderful day of fun and games on Saturday, February 28, 2009 from 10:00 am until 3:00 pm. Winter fun for the whole family! We will need volunteers, so start thinking about how you can help make this event successful!

Search for the words listed above in the Winter Word Search Grid. The words can be forwards, backwards, vertical, horizontal or diagonal. Circle each letter separately, but keep in mind that letters may be used in more than one word. When you have circled all the words, read the remaining letters of the word search grid left to right, top to bottom, to learn an interesting fact about winter.

Have a great Winter Holiday! See you back in School January 5th, 2009!
